What Is Going On Tonight?
Natchaug Lodge, No. 23, K. of P., meets at 8:01 Main street.

Everett Brown, 27, local manager of the Standard Oil company, committed suicide by shooting Saturday night in his room in the Park Central hotel. People in the hotel first became suspicious that something was wrong with Brown when it was noticed that the light in his room was burning, this being after 8 o'clock Sunday morning. Existed Bernard, proprietor of the hotel, notified the police, and upon the arrival of Officer McLean entry was made to the room and Brown was found lying on his bed with a bullet hole through his stomach and another bullet wound in his forehead just at the hairline. A .33 caliber revolver was found containing two empty shells. Medical Examiner Dr. F. E. Wilcox was called and after viewing the body gave a verdict of suicide, stating that Brown had been dead for over 10 hours. The medical examiner gave permission for the removal of the body to an undertaker's.

News of the suicide of Brown came as a surprise to his friends, and Sunday afternoon the man who had been with Brown from 4 until 6 o'clock Saturday evening stated that he noticed nothing unusual about Brown's actions that afternoon. Upon arrival at the hotel Brown went to his room, which was in the third story, and while the people of the hotel were at supper he shot himself, once in the stomach, a little to the left, and in the forehead, directly in the center, just at the hairline, using the bedding in his room to deaden the sound. No one at the hotel heard any revolver report.

Brown was recently brought into court charged with non-support of his wife, and had taken an appeal. It was rumored about the city Saturday that he had lost his position with the Standard Oil company, but this could not be verified.

Everett Brown was born in this city Sept. 8, 1893, the son of Clifford H. and Josephine Fanning Brown. Willimantic has always been his home and he had been in the employ of the Standard Oil company for many years. He is survived by a brother, Walter Brown, of Warren-ville.

Tells Girls How She Found
Relief From Pain

West Palm Beach, Fla.—"When I was 19 years old I was irregular and I had such terrible cramps it felt like a knife going through me. I took Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
and I was cured.
After I was married I had the same trouble caused by the added work of family and household. I took heavy washings so I told my husband to get six bottles of the Vegetable Compound and by taking it regularly my troubles ceased and now I never have a pain or ache, and am regular. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and think every young girl should take it. You can publish this letter and it may be the means of helping some other girl or woman."

—Mrs. MARY M. WAGNER, Box 759, West Palm Beach, Florida.

While no woman is entirely free from periodic suffering it does not seem to be the plan of nature that woman should suffer so severely and when pain exists something is wrong which should be set right. Every girl who suffers from monthly cramps should get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

WARM WINTER COATS

AT $29.50

There are many days ahead in which a good, warm coat will be useful, but one interested in a Winter Coat does not feel like paying full price.

To those in need of a warm coat, and one that is suitable for any occasion, at a price that means a saving of less than half the former price, we should like to have them look at the special lot we are closing at only $29.50, fur collar and full lined.

WESTERLY

All the flags in Westerly were at half-mast Saturday, and the stores were closed from 2 to 3 o'clock, to pay respect to Joseph A. O'Connell of Co. F, 9th Regiment, Second Division, who died in France shortly after the signing of the armistice.
The dead hero was accorded a military funeral by Merrill Post, No. 16, American Legion; the exercises were in charge of Chaplain E. J. Cleveland, chaplain of the local post.

The services at the house at 2 o'clock were conducted by Rev. B. U. Hatfield, pastor of the First Baptist church, of which the young soldier was a member.
The casket was then borne to a waiting caisson, and the procession moved down Mechanic street, through the square, and to the First Baptist church. The order of march was as follows: Commander George P. Chapman, Adjutant Edward
J. Butler, and Bugler William Donovan; Drummer Clyde Burdick; firing squad composed of Maurice Leung, Moses Payne, J. O'Connell, Michael Murphy, Albert Brown, Cornelius Riley, Walter Thorpe, and Frank Parker; members of Merrill post; caisson driven by Lawrence Book, guarded by Harold Barber and John Donahue; bearers, Austin Matthews, Samuel Council, Philip Rutten, Clarence Maxwell, John Law, William Wills, Robert Kenney and Irvin Adams; Chaplain E. J. Cleveland; automobiles bearing relatives and friends; wounded ex-service men in automobiles.

The services at the church were in charge of Rev. B. U. Hatfield. The eulogy was pronounced by Rev. S. M. Cathcart. Following the church services, the line moved slowly down Elm street to the river bend cemetery where the burial was conducted by Chaplain Cleveland. As the body was lowered into the grave three volleys were fired by the firing squad, and taps were sounded by Bugler Donovan, with the echo played by Stanley Livingston.

A mission for the Italian people of Westerly was opened Sunday evening at the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Rev. E. Green, pastor of the Italian church, will be the speaker. Father Green, besides being a missionary of experience is also the editor of the Italian paper La Sentinella, published weekly in Providence. The mission is for both men and women, and will continue throughout the week. As a countryman, Catholic missionary articles may be procured in the office of the church after each service.

Over forty relatives and friends attended the fifteenth wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Jagger, of Beach street, Saturday evening.
The evening was devoted to talks of olden times when Westerly was but a village.
The couple received congratulations and gifts and wished for further years of happiness together. Refreshments were served. Guests were present from Providence, Wickford and Cape Charles, Va.

A wedding which has been making a practice of lurking about in the vicinity of George and School streets and Chester avenue in the night-time, has caused considerable alarm among women of that locality. In the past few years Westerly has had a number of such characters who direct their attention to women.

According to an announcement contained in the Milton College Review, W. Alcander Kenyon son of Mrs. Walter E.
Kenyon of Hopkinton is now acting as associate professor of biology in Milton college, Milton, Wis. Mr. Kenyon is a graduate of Westerly High school.

Michael Bur of Leeward avenue was in Milford, Mass. Sunday to attend the funeral of a relative.

William D. Potter of Attleboro, Mass., is visiting in Westerly. He is the son of Patrick Burke who died Friday in Milford, Mass., was well known here in Westerly, where he had many relatives and friends.

George E. Broughton was able to be out Saturday after being confined to his home for several weeks with a severe attack of pneumonia.

Edna Mill of Summer street is in Philadelphia to attend the alumni reunion of Beacham school, which she attended last year.

Mrs. Ralph Spargo who is ill at her home on School street, has a sister, her report is much improved.

Miss Mary T. McGuinn, a teacher in at the Mil. Vernon, N. Y. public schools, is visiting at her home in Ashaway.

Mrs. Joseph Frickel returned to her home on Jay street Sunday, after spending three weeks with relatives in Montreal.

The teachers in Westerly public schools have all returned to their homes to spend the vacation week.

From all indications, business at Pleasant View will be brisk this year. Three new houses are about to be started, and several lots have been purchased by prospective builders. It is expected that the new golf club there will further increase the value of the land.

UNCASVILLE

A successful Washington birthday party was held in the Methodist chapel on Sunday afternoon. The affair was presided at and the affair given by the Ladies Aid society. Mrs. William C. Val-let, chairman, assisted by Mrs. A. W.
Avery, Mrs. Charles H. Hurd, Mrs. H.
Dart and Mrs. C. C. Tibbets, proved success, over thirty dollars being raised which is to be used for new dishes and other furnishings for the kitchen.

From six o'clock to eight a substantial supper of salads, baked beans, hot rolls, coffee, cake and ice cream was served. After supper a very pleasing entertainment was given as follows: Song, Five young ladies; piano duet, Mrs.
Tibbets and Miss Ramage; song by three little girls; piano solo, Miss Engbee; Jollin solo, Austin Kellogg, with Elizabeth Kellogg accompanying; recitation, Ellwood Benson; piano solo, Myrtene Gessner; recitation, Mrs. Charles C.
Fennell; piano duet, Mrs. Tibbets, Miss Hammann. In closing America was sung by all present.

At the close of the entertainment Miss Alice Ramage, dressed as a dame of yelden times, played a grand old fashioned grandmother and her son, Lester, dressed as Uncle Sam, followed by Mrs.
Charles Hope, in a grey silk which was a hundred years old, and Mrs. Burk G.
Hewitt whose costume looked as if she had been one of Washington's neighbors.

Next came Myrtene Gessner in a dress which she showed many changes from modern modes. Mrs. Tibbets, in a beautiful black silk of many a year back, with her hair done to fit that time, made a most pleasing appearance. Little Edna Dart, in a dress of white and pink, caused much merriment as did also Yra, Jennie Potter in blue silk, full of all white cotton stockings with alluring adorned with huge buckles. She wore a beautiful lace shawl.

After marching several times before the judges, Ralph H. Meier and Rev. and Mrs. Tibbets, a cake made and presented by B. W. Meier, was given to the one whom the judges thought the most nearly like Washington's days was presented to Mrs. Jennie Potter.

tertaining their grandson, Newton Dickson, of East Windsor.

NOANK

The fishing schooner W. A. Morse, recently purchased by Capt. Henry Lang-worthy, left Friday for New York, where a crew will be taken on for the fishery.
While in the harbor a force of workmen was employed in making repairs to the vessel and overhauling the two gasoline engines. The schooner, which was the property of fish Captain Longworthy is being after, very scarce, but this year they are being caught in large numbers.
Charles Crouch and Hathaway Wolfe left with Captain Longworthy as members of the crew.

Angus McQuarrie, who has been a student at Colgate university, is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mc-Quarrie, having completed his studies.
Mr. McQuarrie will return to Colgate in June for commencement.
